Manuel T. Banzon, MD, an orthopedic surgeon in Freehold, New Jersey, will present a public lecture titled “Computer-Assisted, Minimally Invasive, Total Hip Replacement” on Thursday, June 5, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the CentraState Ambulatory Campus Conference Center in Room B.

Dr. Banzon is one of the partners and orthopedic surgeons at Advanced Orthopedics and Sports Medicine Institute in Freehold, New Jersey. Advanced Orthopedics and Sports Medicine Institute presents many informative and educational lectures in Monmouth County, New Jersey.

The hour-long presentation, which is free and open to the public, will explain advances in total hip replacement surgery. Through computer assistance and advanced implant technology, hip replacement surgery is more precise and less invasive than before, requiring smaller incisions. “It’s essential that we inform those suffering with chronic hip pain that it’s entirely possible to resume the activities they used to enjoy with a shorter recovery time. I enjoy giving these presentations because so many people are unaware of the advances being made and how the patients benefit,” says Dr. Banzon. The presentation will conclude with a discussion and time for questions. Those interested in attending should call (732) 308-0570 to register.
